

Introduction

For Yeovil Town's loyal band of supporters, the date May 19, 2013, will never be forgotten. On Sunday a travelling green and white army of 20,000 hopeful fans journeyed to Wembley Stadium and witnessed the most amazing result in the club's long and proud history. Gary Johnson's men claimed a 2-1 victory over Brentford and a place in the npower Championship for the first time. It was a result which captured the imagination of the whole town – and indeed most of the South West. And on Tuesday thousands took to the streets to meet their heroes and say thank you. The Western Gazette has followed the Glovers through the years, in good times and bad. Here we celebrate a remarkable week in a remarkable season.

THANK YOU: The League One play-off trophy gleamed in the sunshine on Tuesday as fans packed into Yeovil to pay tribute to the players and officials who had helped clinch promotion.
